

Proclamation

Whereas, Stoughton is a community known for the dedication and commitment of its citizens; and

Whereas, over the years our community has benefitted from countless volunteers and extraordinary business owners providing time, energy, and helping hands; and

Whereas, volunteer efforts have kept our food pantry stocked, delivered meals to our homebound, and fund-raised monies to provide assistance when needed; and,

Whereas, Stoughton has been the beneficiary of many volunteer projects such as the Opera House renovation, Youth Center projects, hospital expansion, and numerous park projects, to name only a few; and

Whereas, volunteerism proves to be a full circle, as those who receive are grateful, those who volunteer are humble, and those in our community are thankful; and

Whereas, National Volunteer Week reflects the power that volunteers and extraordinary business owners have to inspire by example—volunteers both encourage those they help and motivate others to serve; now,

Therefore, I, Tim Swadley, Mayor of the City of Stoughton, proclaim

Meals on Wheels Volunteers
